Austin Olive understands that preparation, determination, and tenacity are the keys to success. A motivated self-starter, he provides real-world solutions to his clients by focusing on the big picture and not getting lost in the weeds. A devoted learner, his favorite part of practicing law is learning about his client's businesses and the unique issues they face.

Austin graduated law school with highest honors -7th in his class. Prior to joining the firm, he served as Assistant District Attorney for the Rowan and Mecklenburg County District Attorney's offices and worked as a fraud control attorney for the North Carolina Department of Insurance.

When not practicing law, you will find Austin spending time with his wife or chasing his two energetic young kids. In addition to spending time with his family, Austin enjoys running, photography, reading, and beach vacations.
